Predator Sala 'GrassRoots'

Designed to read from the ground up, the shoe tells a story of growth. Oak brown begins in the dirt—the uncertain stage where ambition first takes root—before rising into an ash brown upper marked by struggle, progress, and small victories. Fuzzy green laces and hair suede finish the climb, symbolizing grass fully grown. But the story extends beyond the colorway: the upper can carry one of 26 creator stories developed by TBG and Andu, allowing each wearer to choose whose journey moves alongside their own. Because the come-up is not only about reaching the top—it is about who stands beside you when you get there.
